Ladd, Andrew LW CHI		82				15					34

Ladd has scored, 11, 21, 30, 49 points during his first four seasons. The trend will continue and he'll h

Laich, Brooks C WAS		82				23					30

Laich had a very consistent season as he was solid every single month other than January. Unless he
Lang, Robert C MON X 50 18

Was Montreal's most reliable forward before an injury cut short his season. At 38, he won't be this goo
Langenbrunner, Jamie RW NJ 29 40

Career best season, expect a small drop in production next season.
Langkow, Daymond C CGY 73 21 28

Other than a 77-point one time anomaly, Langkow is usually around the 60-point mark, which is near
Laperriere, Ian RW COL X 74 7

Hasn't had any fantasy value for three years.
Lapierre, Maxim C MON 79 15 13

Fourth liner extraordinaire gave the Habs more than they expected.
LaRose, Chad RW CAR X 81 19

Larose has steadily improved over his four seasons and there's still a bit of room left.
Latendresse, Guillaume RW MON 56 14 12

He'll score 20 goals and 40 points next season.
Lebda, Brett D DET 65 6 10

He could hit 20 points one of these years.
Lecavalier, Vincent C TB 77 29 38

I think the odds are 50-50 he's traded during the offseason. I also think the odds are 80-20 in favor of
Lee, Brian D OTT 53 2 11

Slowly brought along to become the power play quarterback, it's not for next year yet, but he'll be a re
Legwand, David C NSH 73 20 22

The 45-point range is the norm for Legwand.
Lehtinen, Jere RW DAL X 48 8

Second consecutive injury filled season for Lehtinen who's becoming a fantasy afterthought.
Leino, Ville LW DET 13 5 4

Leino showed real potential and he could replace Samuelsson next season and post similar numbers
Leopold, Jordan D CGY X 83 7

He was having a decent enough season in Colorado, but didn't produce in Calgary. Don't expect more
Lepisto, Sami D WAS 7 0 4

He'll turn 25 in October so he needs to get an opportunity next season, but that might not happen in W
Letang, Kris D PIT 74 10 23

With Gonchar and Whitney out, several people expected big numbers from Letang, but it might have

Lidstrom, Nicklas D DET 78 16 43

Will soon turn 39 so a drop in production isn't a surprise and the trend should continue next year.

Liles, John-Michael D COL 75 12 27

Forget about last year's bump in the road, he's a legitimate 40-point blueliner.

Lilja, Andreas D DET 60 2 11

His career high is 15 points.

Lindstrom, Joakim LW PHO 44 9 11

Could produce 45 points, but could just as well give you 25.

Lisin, Enver RW PHO 48 13 8

He certainly has talent, but he's a huge defensive liability as his -36 over 78 NHL games attest so it'll
Little, Bryan C ATL 79 31 20

The sophomore had several ups and downs, but his career is kickstarted and it should be a nice one.
Lombardi, Matthew C PHO 69 14 32

Lombardi never fulfilled expectations in Calgary, but with 16 points in 19 games in Phoenix, he's start
Lucic, Milan LW BOS 72 17 25

More valuable in real life than in fantasy, but has 20 goal potential next season to go along with over
Lundmark, Jamie RW CGY 27 8

A first round pick in 1999, Lundmark has never been able to establish himself, but he's proved very w

Lupul, Joffrey RW PHI	79	25	25

He's too inconsistent to expect more.

Lydman, Toni D BUF	80	3	20

You can bet he'll finish within the 20-25 point range every year.
