DobberHockey is done.

I regret giving this kind of news, but I have fought as long and as hard as I could. In the end, running this site just cannot continue.

I quit my job last October to take a stab at my true love, but in the end it is just not financially feasible. My wife cannot continue to shoulder the load with the bills and mortgage and so I have to go back to work. I may decide to keep the site running and occasionally update that fantasy player rankings and throw up the odd thought, but for all intents and purposes it is done effective April 15.

I want to thank everybody for your support. I've met some fantastic people here over the last year and a half - some guys I have talked to since back in the old "FrontPage" days. Hell, some still click my old "geocities - rotohockey" site to lead them here!

Anyway, at least I got you most of the way through the season. I'm sure more than half of you either won or came damn close thanks to my advice, and I'm sorry I can't do the same for you next year.

Those that bought my Ultimate Fantasy Pack - I will return your money. The Playoff draft lists will still be sent out, don't worry.

Thanks again all, for your support.

Sincerely,

Darryl Dobbs
