Quarter Ties Notch!

Last week, flipping a coin got five out of 10 right. Which is excellent when you consider that games that go into overtime are tie games. Those five points were enough to match Notch's picks. Burnsy has retired from the contest. Notch was just much for him and once he caught some insight into just how damn good that quarter is - he couldn't hack it.

Here are this week's picks for the NHL games today, the final game of the season.

Last week: Notch 5 - Quarter 5 - Burnsy 0

Total: Notch 83 - Burnsy 67
